

Please consider not granting BellSouth (and other monopolistic entities) the future opportunity to squash competition by abusing its monopoly power. This reduces choice for me as a customer and interferes with the free market system without any clear benefit to the consumer.

Regards,
Jos Backus